THE C. N. & L. ROAD.

A Rumor that the Seaboard Road May

Buy It.

Columbia, Dec. 10.—There is a very interesting and important rumor current in railroad circles. The statement is made that the Seaboard Air Line is after securing the sole control of the Columbia, Newberry and Laurens road and that representatives of the different interest now in control of the railroad are holding a consultation in New York about the sale of the road, so that it may be in the exclusive control of the Seaboard.

The Columbia, Newberry and Laurens road is now operated by the Coast Line, which owns a considerable amount of the stock, having bought the local interests in the road to a large extent. The road was originally owned by certain citizens of Columbia, the Coast Line and the Seaboard, but, as stated, the Coast Line has secured most of the stock of the local capitalist. The road has given the Seaboard a direct line from Atlanta and the West to Columbia, freight and passenger business being exhausted at Clinton, which was the junction point for the Seaboard and the Columbia, Newberry and Laurens.

It is reported that should the sale of the road be consummated, through and solid trains from Atlanta will be run to Columbia.

Local representatives of the Seaboard here said they knew of nothing in connection with the reported negotiations and representatives of the Columbia,

Newberry and Laurens and the Coast Line were equally reticent. They said that such matters did not come within their jurisdiction and consequently they could give no information.

To Leave Newberry.

Rev. W. M. Pinson, having accepted day morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. A.

Adams, will by that time, be at his new pastorate at Rock Hill.

He Kept His Leg.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation, "but," he writes, "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and 1 1/2 boxes of Bunkley's

Salve and my leg was sound and well as ever." For Eruptions,

Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Sores
